Tuesday 15 The Dresser with Nicholas Lyndhurst
In a war-torn provincial theatre an ageing actor manager, known to his loyal acting company as 'Sir', is struggling to keep a grip on his sanity & complete his 227th performance of King Lear. Most able-bodied actors are in uniform & bombs are destroying theatres across the country, but the show must go on. Ensuring that it does is Norman, Sir's devoted dresser, who for 16 years has been there to fix his wig, massage his ego, remind him of his opening lines & provide the sound effects in the storm scene.
